

RIDE OF THE MONTH

Lynn Miller's offer of warm soup entices riders.

Lynn's "mapless" ride down the Interurban Trail to Chatham on December 16th happened on one of our December warm days, but the soup was a reward nonetheless. Lynn's white bean and turkey chili accompanied by cornbread were consumed by members serious about upholding the club's motto of "Eat to ride, ride to eat". Thanks Lynn, for your leadership and hospitality.

ALMOST ANYTHING AWARD

The AAA this month goes to Marilyn Powell and Kathy Shepard for their sportsmanship and civility in agreeing to a tie for the Spinner Award.

As the month of December went by, Kathy and Marilyn began to realize that they were in the same age class and had ridden somewhat similar mileages. Toward the end of the month when miles were critical, Marilyn was ahead by four miles, circumstances dictated that Marilyn drive to the Saturday ride and Kathy would have four "to/from" miles. At the end of that ride their mileages were exactly equal and they reached a "gentlewoman's agreement" to leave it at that. Neither rode on the last day of the year. Congratulations to both Marilyn and Kathy (See also Kathy's article, pages 8-9!).

LEAD WATER BOTTLE

Lisa Kidd gets the lead this month for her gullibility. Phil Arnold, a top rider in the club, got a new job in El Paso, Texas. Due to his impending move, Phil didn't renew his membership by November 1st. In e-mails to Lisa Kidd, Phil mentioned that he was riding some long out of town rides in Texas for which he would get club mileage credit when he paid his dues in December. Phil was intending to encourage Lisa to ride more miles to keep ahead of him. Lisa bought Phil's story. Phil kept e-mailing Lisa and Karl about the club miles he was supposedly accruing that hadn't been officially recorded for November or December. Lisa had no idea what his actual mileage was. Phil also said in another e-mail that he was intending to rack up the miles while he was in Springfield between Christmas and New Years. At the end of the year Lisa was still asking if anyone saw Phil riding in town in December and asking Karl how many miles he had. Congratulations, Lisa, for receiving the lead—your first time in 2007!

RIDERS OF THE MONTH

12/06 Kathy Shepard, 319 mi.	8/06 Bill Bock, 759 mi.	4/06 Pete Gudmundson, 757 mi.
11/06 Lance Kidd, 547 mi.	7/06 Charlie Witsman, 1633 mi.	3/06 Phil Arnold, 646 mi.

9/06 Lisa Kidd, 728 mi.	5/06 Cathy Yeaman, 1190 mi.	1/06 Tom Clark, 543 mi.

President's Report February 2007

Congratulations to all of the Spinner Award recipients! Well done, all of you.

Well, here it is February, with it's usual mix of wintry weather. But March is just around the corner, and there can be some FINE cycling days in March. So, we won't be curled up by the fire-place with a mug of hot chocolate too much longer – counting our teeth or reading books about cycling.

One of the purposes of the Springfield Bicycle Club is to promote bicycling. With that in mind, the Board decided at the January Board meeting to allow bicycle commuting miles to be counted toward Club miles beginning February 1. (In the past, we have allowed commuting miles to be counted in May, National Bicycle Month; now we're expanding that to the rest of the year.)

So, if you're already a dedicated bicycle commuter, good for you! Keep track of your commuting miles, and turn them in to Karl. And if you are not yet a bicycle commuter, give it some consideration. With a little bit of planning, commuting via bicycle is quite easy and practical.

Technical considerations: It seems that the published ride rules will need to be modified to include commuting miles. When counting commuting miles in May, we've been fairly informal: "Ride to work and turn in your miles." However, if we really want to encourage bicycling, there are lots of kinds of commuting besides going to and from work. Personally, I'd like to see our definition of commuting include any trip that a "normal" American would think requires a car: to work, to the grocery store, to a doctor's appointment, etc.

So, what are your thoughts about commuting miles? Talk to one of your friendly Board members, and let us know what you think.

See you on the road!

Board Meeting Notes— November 1, 2006

Connie Roberts, Recording Secretary

Attending: Dave Ross, David McDivitt, Ken Anderson, Dave Lucas, Roger McCredie, Marty Celnick, Bill Donels, Kevin Brown, Connie Roberts.

Minutes from the November meeting were approved.

Treasurer's Report. Dave Lucas reported we have a balance of $17,026.41 as of December 3, 2006.

Ride Schedule and Meetings. David McDivitt reported he will begin work on the January ride schedule in the near future. The next board meeting is scheduled for January 3, 2007.

Awards. Sue Hack was unable to attend the meeting so Dave Ross presided over the awards. The Ride of the Month was awarded to Roger McCredie for his ride from Auburn. Roger is a new ride leader and the maps were fantastic. The ride also included a stop in Virden to admire the new sculpture. The Almost Anything Award was awarded to Ken Anderson's wife Sandy for taking care of the e-mails Ken receives as Secretary of the SBC. Ken works at a PC all day and is just too worn out to check his own e-mails so Sandy does it for him. Ken says "she worships me". The Lead Water Bottle had two nominations. Ken Anderson for not checking his own e-mails and letting his wife Sandy do it and Marty Celnick for hitting a pole on the Pana Taylorville trail because he had his light off to conserve its energy. The award went to Ken "She worships me" Anderson.

Legislative / Education. Lynn Miller was unable to attend so Bill Donels did the legislative report. Bill reported that Lynn and he had met with the developer of Legacy Point, the Park District, and the developer's engineer. He said the developer seemed very agreeable to putting the trail on the west side of the development. IDOT says they will build the trail unless the developer gets the funding and property to do the trail. Bill and Lynn met with Senator Durbin and he will meet directly with the Governor to try to get funds for the trail in the next grants cycle. Everything is still up in the air at this point but Lynn and Bill will continue to lobby for the ideal trail situation.

Social Chair Report. Aaron Shehan was unable to attend but has been corresponding via e-mail about the Holiday Party this weekend.

Special Events. Roger McCredie reported his plea for volunteers for the CCC in last months QR went unanswered so he will be making calls to recruit people to help.

Quick Release. Marty Celnick reported he has begun to put together articles for the January QR. The deadline for articles is December 15.

Old Business. The EZ rides were discussed and it was agreed they were a huge success and will be started up again in the spring.

New Business. Ken Anderson is going to begin plans to make a new SBC directory.

Thanks to Dave Ross for getting the meeting room at Robert Morris College.

Next Meeting: 7:15 p.m., Wednesday, January 3, 2007, at Robert Morris College, 3101 Montvale Drive.

February Memories

By Mike Becker

1972--35 Years Ago: The membership meeting was held in the Lincoln Library West Branch with a movie on the agenda. The title was not specified, but we presume/hope it was bicycle-related. The refreshments also were not specified, but, during movies, real cyclists prefer popcorn drenched with warm bearing grease.

1977--30 Years Ago: Dean Wisleder was voted the Almost Anything Award for bicycling 549 consecutive days! In the 26 months prior to the meeting, he had missed riding only two days. ++A panel of SBC members— Dave Lucas, Dean Wisleder, and Barbara Weathers—appeared on In the Consumer's Interest to discuss bicycles and cycling. The show was broadcast over WSSR (that's pre-WSSU, which was, in turn, pre-W-You-Is). [Question: What is WCIA doing, now that the Double-USSR is no more?] ++The fiscal 1976 income was reported as $1,797.23 and expenses as $1,628.21. The newsletter and postage were the greatest expenses, and the “New Salem” ride, probably referring to the now-named Capital City Century, cost $152.95 (which today wouldn't even buy the bratwurst for the CCC post-ride party) and earned $172.50. ++President George Caldwell wrote: “Have you set some '77 goals yet? The longest fish are caught, the biggest game shot, and most miles ridden by the warmth of the winter fire. I challenge you to set a goal that you have to work toward.” ++On a February ride to Lincoln Memorial Gardens, six riders showed up, each on a Schwinn. Such a coincidence was not uncommon, but today is more likely to occur with Cannondales or Treks.

1982--25 Years Ago: Our first President-Teresa (phonetically, that is), Teresa Kluthe (now Parth), wrote about volunteering: “By volunteering, you are giving your knowledge, experience, and ability. In return you are making new friends, supporting your club, your interest, and receiving the self-satisfaction of knowing you are a valuable asset to the club.”

1987--20 Years Ago: The monthly meeting featured a movie, not of the kind shown 35 years ago (see above), but clips of SBC activities such as last year's holiday party, the NoBell award, the Spinner Awards and various rides, including shots of SBCers at the Hilly Hundred. These were taken with the club's video camera, which is now either in Karl's basement or a pawn shop somewhere, or maybe even being used to make soft porn flics such as “Headset Honeys/Bottom Bracket Babes” or “The Girls of SBC Get Wild With Tubasti”.

1992--15 Years Ago: A certifiably deranged member (I am not naming names) proposed that the Club hold a February 29 winter century (to go along with his other, shall we say, marginal ideas, like the Moonlight Century). Although he was a no show (but nevertheless thanked because “good roads and good weather are inversely proportional to [his] presence”), nine of the fifteen riders posted a hundred (actual) miles. All riders got quadruple incentive mileage, 'cuz it was a leap day, of course. ++Theresa (our second President-Theresa) DeLeon, Jo VanMetre and Bonnie Verhulst presented a spirited pro-vegan program on nutrition—the eat to ride or ride to eat question. Like we needed that. Everyone knows that pizza before, during and after a ride sustains life. I, being a carno-pesco vegetarian, believe that Big Macs are also good for the body because the grease lubricates the knee joints.

1997--10 Years Ago: Because of the illness of Roger Miller, the gentleman who hosted the SBC meetings at Security Federal for many years, the meetings moved elsewhere. In February, the SBC met in the YMCA Board Room. The program was a presentation on Adopt-a-Highway and a swap shop. ++Laura Farson volunteered to take over the Legislative Education position. ++Joe Angermeier was the January rider of the month, and Dan Eatherington, February.

National Bike License Plates Available from LIB

Attention all bicycle enthusiasts! Celebrate National Bicycle Month with a limited edition license plate set. The plates are approved by the Secretary of State's office and you may display them instead of your regular plates during the months of April and May 2007.

Each plate set costs $28. A registration form with a color picture of the plate can be seen on the League of Illinois Bicyclists Web site at: <http://www.bikelib.org/>

A Spinner Saga

By Kathy Shepard

It was Wednesday, December 27, 2006. I hadn't even planned to ride. But rain was forecast for Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, and Mark wanted to try to accomplish the impossible task of riding 132 miles to get 2,000 for the year. I was still ahead of Lynn Rhoades, my closest competitor for the Spinner Award, but wanted to round out the year with a comfortable lead.

So Mark and I hauled our creaky joints on to our bikes and over to Washington Park for the Geezer Ride. Soon Dave Ross pedaled up. Then someone drove up and unloaded a bike from the back seat of her car. I thought I was the only one who transported her bike that way! It was Marilyn Powell, a very nice and very fast racer. I'd enjoyed talking with Marilyn at Bike Club parties, but I'd never ridden with her. She was much too fast for me to keep up with her. But today she slowed her pace to ride with us.

We rode to Chatham, where Dave wanted hot coffee at Huck's. As I was sipping Gatorade and admiring Marilyn's new bike, she told me it replaced one that had been totalled in a crash. It's a pretty bad crash that results in a totalled bike. And this one was bad - broken bones, loss of consciousness. And, Marilyn said, the doctor told her it would take her longer to recover, at her age. As our jaws dropped at the doctor's insensitivity, Marilyn said, "And I'm only 47!"

My jaw dropped quite a bit further at that remark. I said to Marilyn as we started back, "So, the person who won the Lead earlier this year for giving you a hard time about being 50 really deserved it, didn't he?" She agreed he did. Then I told her, "Marilyn, I'm 47!" It was time for Marilyn's jaw to drop. I said, quite casually, I think, under the circumstances, "So, how many miles ya got, Marilyn?"

Marilyn, it turns out, did not know that I was in her age category, either. She thought she had 2100 miles, but wasn't sure of the exact number. To her great credit, she asked in the next breath if there had ever been a tie for a Spinner Award. None of us thought there had been. She immediately suggested that we try to tie.

And so it began. We did 27 miles with Marilyn, ending at her car at the park. I told her that Mark and I would continue our ride that day, and she and I promised to exchange e-mails updating each other on our mileage. I also told her that she should go ahead and try to win outright if she wanted to. But she insisted that all she wanted just then was to go home and nap.

Mark and I did another 31 miles. I felt pretty good, but I had an appointment to use a couple of salon gift certificates that were due to expire at the end of the year. Of all the times to abandon a bike ride to get a manicure and a pedicure. Never again!

The next day we again did 27 miles with Marilyn. She then rode another five miles with Mike Vonnahmen in the park before calling it a day. Mark and I took to the trails and only did another 24. I felt terrible - tired and sore. I went home and ate and slept.

The next morning, Friday, I took more Ibuprofen. When Mark and I rolled up to the Washington Park shelter, we had lots of Bike Club company, but no Marilyn. This was not good. I wanted to work to catch up to her - I didn't want her to ease up to make it easier for me. But, as it turns out, she wasn't making it easier for me. Someone had made it much harder for her, by crashing into her beloved BMW as she was driving home from Thursday's ride! She was OK, her bike was OK - and no, I wasn't the driver of the other car! Marilyn had gotten her bike, helmet, and cell phone, but not her bike gloves, out of the car. She was wearing mittens. She accepted my offer to bring her my "lobster" biking gloves the next day. I reiterated, in front of additional witnesses, that she should go for an outright win if she wanted to. Then we began our ride.

This ride was longer. We split on the way back, each group saying it was doing a "short" route home. Mark and I went with Marilyn, natch, in a group led by Pete Gudmundson, who took us on what turned out to be a 35-mile route by the time we returned to the park. Mark and I kept going. We knew today was the day to ride as far as we could, since it was our last show-n-go of the year, and the weather was iffy for Saturday and Sunday. That Marilyn now had to-foms on today's ride complicated matters, and added to the margin I had to make up. Mark calculated that we needed a total of over 80 miles for the day in order to come close.

So we rode. We rode to the Interurban, which we did twice. We did the Wabash three times. We rode home and around the neighborhood, where Mark urged me to ride up and down the block a couple more times, since his GPS told him we were a fraction of a mile away from completing another mile. Cars stopped until we waved them on, as we rode up and down Leland in the cold and dark. Our neighbors, used to seeing us saddle up on our bikes in our funny spandex get-ups in all sorts of weather, did not call the authorities on this night, either.

We did a total of 82 miles Friday. I calculated our standings, and was thrilled to learn that I was only four miles behind Marilyn! I excitedly sent her an e-mail detailing the results, and saying that, depending on our to-foms Saturday, we could tie that day!

So Mark and I rode Saturday to the ride start at the Perkins at Parkway Pointe. We had a total of 10 to-foms. Then Marilyn rode up. She had six to-foms. We were tied! I let out a shriek, patted her shoulder, and immediately apologized in case it was a shoulder she'd injured in her crash. She reassured me that it wasn't. We showed her Mark's GPS showing the mileage from Friday's ride, and I gave her my lobster gloves. We agreed to do the longer route, and headed on out. There was a nasty headwind. Then it started to rain. I was very sore from the previous day's ride. But Mark and I finished out the ride with Linda Butler, the leader, for 33 ride miles. I e-mailed Marilyn inquiring whether she planned to ride the next day, the last day of the year, in which case I would join her. She emphatically replied that she had no such plans!

So, Mark and I ended up doing 234 miles in those four days, December 27 through 30, 2006. Mark blew past his goal of 2,000 miles, ending the year with 2,102. Marilyn and I ended with a total of 2,274, tying for the Spinner. I can't think of a better way to end the year. It was a fantastic experience! I thank Marilyn and Mark, for riding with me and for creating a challenge that was very sweet to meet. You know, Daylight Savings Time starts a month earlier this year. And this cold weather can't last long. It's never too cold to ride, they say! And...

See you on the road, everybody!

Club Jerseys for Sale; Pick Up Your Prepaid Jersey Robert LaBonte

Show your club spirit and get ready for spring with a new, reasonably priced jersey! It will be a couple of years before the next jersey comes along, but we are already working on design ideas for the next one!

Here's a list of available jerseys for sale:

BLUE ($47.75):

3)XL mens club

3)L mens club

2)XXL womans club

1)XL womans club

2)L womans club

GREEN ($45.75):

1)L mens race

2)XXXL womans club

1)L womans club

Note: XL womans club= size 12; XXXL mens club= mens XL

You need to try these on! One may do that at my home, 7066 Hermes Lane.

The following folks still need to pick up their prepaid jersey. I will take the prepaid jerseys with me on rides. But it would be best for anyone who wants to pick up their jersey to call me so that I know to be looking for the owners.
